Rep. Hurd Announces Athens and Medford Office Hours

MADISON – Representative Karen Hurd (R-Withee) will be holding in-district office hours next Friday, February 21st in Athens and Medford. These meetings will allow constituents to meet one-on-one or in family groups to discuss issues important to them with Representative Hurd. Residents of the 69th Assembly District who would like to meet with the representative during these office hours are asked to contact her Capitol office at (608) 237-9169 to schedule a 10-minute appointment. Appointments are first come, first served. The times and locations are as follows:

- 12:30 – 2:00 PM – Athens Municipal Building, 203 Alfred St., Athens, WI 54411
- 3:00 – 4:30 PM – Frances L. Simek Memorial Library, 400 N. Main St., Medford, WI 54451

“I believe hearing directly from my constituents allows me to be a better advocate on their behalf in the State Assembly,” said Rep. Hurd. “I look forward to meeting with constituents in Athens and Medford to learn more about their priorities for state government.”

Rep. Hurd plans to hold office hours in other locations around the district on future dates.
