Rep. Shankland: Counting Down to Trivia Weekend

STEVENS POINT- For decades, Stevens Point has been home to The World's Largest Trivia Contest, and this weekend will mark the contest's 50th year. To commemorate the occasion, Representative Katrina Shankland (D- Stevens Point) asked Governor Tony Evers to issue a proclamation declaring the second weekend in April as Trivia Weekend in the state of Wisconsin. The proclamation will be read and presented to Trivia staff at a press conference immediately following the annual Trivia Parade.

In response, Rep. Katrina Shankland issued the following statement:

"I'm thrilled that Governor Evers has recognized the cultural and economic importance of Trivia Weekend by declaring it Trivia Weekend in the state of Wisconsin! The 50th anniversary of this contest is of great importance to our community. Trivia Weekend is packed full of incredible music, the best people, the weirdest questions, and an amazing time – and now the state gets to celebrate with us. Thank you to Governor Evers for declaring it Trivia Weekend in Wisconsin!"

Members of the community are invited to join Rep. Shankland and other leaders for the presentation of the proclamation on Friday, April 12. Details are as follows:

DATE: Friday, April 12th, 2019

TIME: approximately 4:30 p.m.

PLACE: Parking lot of P.J. Jacobs Junior High School, 2400 Main Street, Stevens Point, WI
