Rep. Shankland to Host Roundtable on UW Budget at UW-Stevens Point
5:00-7:00 p.m. on Thursday, February 19

STEVENS POINT – This Thursday, Representative Katrina Shankland (D-Stevens Point) will host a community roundtable on the UW-Stevens Point campus to discuss Governor Walker’s budget proposal for the UW System.

The roundtable discussion is sponsored by the UW-Stevens Point Student Government Association and will also feature Senator Julie Lassa (D-Stevens Point). Students, faculty, staff, and community members are invited to share their thoughts about the proposed $300 million budget cuts, the transition to a public authority, and other budget provisions affecting the UW System.

What: UW Budget Roundtable Discussion

Who: Rep. Katrina Shankland (D-Stevens Point)
Sen. Julie Lassa (D-Stevens Point)
Members of the UW-Stevens Point Student Government Association
UW-Stevens Point faculty, staff, administrators, students, and community members

When: Thursday, February 19
5:00-7:00 p.m.

Where: Room 221, Noel Fine Arts Center
UW-Stevens Point
1800 Portage Street, Stevens Point

“My UW Budget Roundtable will be an open forum for students, university faculty and staff, alumni, and community members to share how the UW System budget cuts will affect their work, their studies, and our local economy. I look forward to our discussion on how we can support UW-Stevens Point during the budget process and put our students and their families first,” said Rep. Shankland.
