Rep. Stubbs Announces 2023-24 Committee Assignments

MADISON, Wis. - Today, Assembly Democratic Leader Greta Neubauer announced committee appointments for the 2023-24 legislative session. For the 2023-2024 legislative session, Representative Shelia Stubbs (D-Madison) will be the Ranking Member of the Assembly Committee on Corrections and will be a part of the Assembly Committees on Colleges & Universities, Tourism, and Criminal Justice & Public Safety. On these appointments, Rep. Stubbs released the following statement:

“It is an honor announce that I will serve as the ranking member of the Assembly Committee on Corrections in the upcoming legislative session. As a former probation & parole officer, I have extensive experience around our state’s correctional system, and I am excited to bring this experience to the committee. As ranking member, I look forward to leading my fellow Democratic lawmakers in finding ways to reduce recidivism and support our correctional staff. Together, we will work to shape a system that prioritizes safety & equity both inside correctional institutions, and outside in our community.”

“In addition to this leadership role, I will also be a part of the Assembly Committee on Colleges & Universities. As the representative of the 77th Assembly District, I have the distinct honor of representing part of the University of Wisconsin Madison, Edgewood College, and Madison College’s Goodman South campus. These institutions make an impact on countless lives in our community, and I look forward to supporting higher education in the state legislature.”

“I will also be returning to the Assembly Committee on Criminal Justice & Public Safety, where I will continue to work with my colleagues to find equity-based criminal justice solutions. By prioritizing equity, we can ensure that our criminal justice system works to make our communities safer, and correct the injustices of our past.”

“Lastly, I will be returning to the Assembly Committee on Tourism, but not in my previous ranking member role. It was an honor to lead my Democratic colleagues in this committee, and to work alongside Secretary-designee Anne Sayers. I am proud of what we accomplished last session, and I look forward to being a partner in future endeavors. It is an honor to highlight all that Wisconsin has to offer families around our country, and around the world.”

“I am excited to continue serving the people of the 77th Assembly District, and to bring your voice into the lawmaking process. Together, we can continue to make Wisconsin a great place to live, work, and visit for everyone.”
