State Representative Rettinger Sworn in for Legislature's 106th Session

Madison, WI –State Representative Nik Rettinger (R-Mukwonago) was sworn in yesterday at the Wisconsin State Capitol to represent the 83rd Assembly District. After being sworn in, Representative Rettinger released the following statement:

"It was an honor to be sworn in to the Wisconsin State Assembly today. Representing the hardworking folks of the 83rd Assembly District is a responsibility I do not take lightly and look forward to hearing from my constituents on issues that are important to them. While Wisconsin has made significant improvements, especially over the past decade, we still have much work to do in order to make Wisconsin the ideal place to live. I am ready to work with my colleagues in the Legislature to accomplish this goal."

The 83rd Assembly District covers Waukesha, Walworth, and Racine counties and includes the communities of Mukwonago, East Troy, Eagle, Vernon, Big Bend, Waterford, and western Muskego.
