2025 NFL Draft Begins in Green Bay

GREEN BAY, Wis – Green Bay state legislators are excited to host the 2025 NFL Draft this week. The event will take place in and around Lambeau Field, the Tiletown District, and downtown Green Bay from April 24th to the 26th, bringing an estimated quarter million visitors to the Green Bay area.

Senator Jamie Wall (D – Green Bay) and State Representatives Ryan Spaude (D – Ashwaubenon) and Amaad Rivera-Wagner (D – Green Bay) released the following statement regarding the event:

“We are excited to welcome fans from across the country and world to our districts for the 2025 NFL Draft. This event will bring thousands of visitors and millions of dollars to our local and state economies. We are excited for visitors to experience our amenities, businesses, and activities and celebrate the history of Packer football. Our community has a lot to offer.”

“This week is the product of years of hard work and collaboration in the Green Bay area. We would like to thank the staff, volunteers, and organizers that have made this possible, including our local elected leaders, the Packers, and Discover Green Bay. The high level of cooperation required to achieve this milestone has not gone unnoticed.”

“The 2025 Draft is a huge moment for Green Bay and Wisconsin. We are so proud of the work our community has done to bring this national display to the Green Bay area. There is so much to celebrate and we look forward to seeing many of our neighbors at Lambeau this week!”
