Assembly Approves Middle-Class Tax Cut

Yesterday, the Wisconsin Assembly approved $340 million in tax cuts on single-income earners making less than $100,000, and families making less than $150,000. The bill accomplishes a campaign promise of Governor Tony Evers, without shifting the tax burden to farmers and manufacturers.

Rep. Scott Allen, who coauthored the legislation, hailed its passage. "We've seen that a declining tax burden contributes to a growing economy and record employment levels. This strategic tax cut will help us attract the workforce needed for sustained prosperity," said Rep. Allen.

The bill is on the Senate calendar for today.
