Rep. Dittrich Announces Committee Chair Position

Appointed Chair of Insurance for a second consecutive session

Madison – Representative Barbara Dittrich (R – Oconomowoc) made the following statement in response to her appointments to Assembly committees for the 2025-2026 Legislative Session:

“It has been a privilege to serve as the Chairperson for the Assembly Committee on Insurance for the last two years, and I’m thrilled that Assembly Speaker Robin Vos has chosen me to continue in this role for the upcoming session. I want to thank Speaker Vos for entrusting me with this significant responsibility, and I remain committed to advancing the work we began to better serve the people of Wisconsin,” Rep. Dittrich said.

Rep. Dittrich was also appointed Vice-Chair of the Assembly Committee on Small Business Development.

“These committees directly impact my district every day and are a critical part of the legislative process. It is humbling to have my myriad experience in both my personal and professional life be put to good use for the good people of Wisconsin. I am excited to resume my efforts to keep Wisconsin moving forward.”
