Omnibus Motion
[LFB Papers #145 thru #151]

Motion:

Move to adopt the following provisions:

1. Tribal Gaming Appropriations and General Fund Revenue (LFB Paper #145). Re-estimate tribal gaming general fund revenue at $2,038,600 in 2021-22 and $25,255,300 in 2022-23 based on changes to estimated debt service payments.

2. Native American Assistance Grants (LFB Paper #146). Adopt Alternative 1 to provide $11,000,000 PR in 2022-23, funded by tribal gaming revenues, to award grants of equal amounts to the 11 federally-recognized tribes and bands in the state to meet the needs of members. Specify that grant funds may not be used to pay gaming-related expenses.

3. Tribal Youth Wellness Center (LFB Paper #147). Adopt Alternative 1 to provide $350,000 PR annually from tribal gaming revenues to support the tribal youth wellness center. Modify the youth wellness center appropriation to repeal the limitation that funds may only be used to create architectural plans.

4. Director of Native American Affairs (LFB Paper #148). Adopt Alternative 1 to create an unclassified position to serve as the Director of Native American Affairs, responsible for managing relations between the state and tribes. Provide $125,600 PR in 2021-22, $160,100 PR in 2022-23, and 1.0 PR position annually, funded by tribal gaming revenues. Specify that the position be placed in executive salary group 3 and appointed by the Secretary of DOA.

5. Native American Economic Development; Technical Assistance Program (LFB Paper #149). Adopt Alternative 1 to provide $110,000 PR annually, funded by tribal gaming revenues, to the Great Lakes Inter-Tribal Council to support its technical assistance program.

6. University of Wisconsin -- Green Bay Summer Camp (LFB Paper #150). Adopt Alternative 1 to provide $109,300 PR annually, funded by tribal gaming revenues, to UW-Green Bay for educational summer camp programs developed in partnership with the Oneida Nation of Wisconsin.

7. Bingo and Raffle Appropriation (LFB Paper #151). Adopt Alternative 1 to combine the PR appropriations for raffle and bingo program operations. Specify that the unencumbered balance associated with bingo program operations be transferred to the lottery fund at the end of each fiscal year.
