Rep. Stuck Sworn In To Represent the 57th Assembly District

MADISON – Today Rep. Stuck (D - Appleton) was sworn in for her third term State Representative for Wisconsin's 57th Assembly District as the Assembly convenes its the 104th session.

“It is my great honor to continue to represent the people of the 57th Assembly District,” stated Rep. Stuck. “I look forward to working with Governor Evers and Legislators from both sides of the aisle to move the state of Wisconsin forward.”

“I will continue to work on the issues that my constituents in the 57th Assembly District and voters across the state have clamored for: affordable healthcare, long-term transportation funding, and reinvesting in public education,” said Rep. Stuck. “I will continue to advocate for my constituents on this important issues in the State Capitol.”
