

Join us for a free public forum

Moving Wisconsin Forward: Reinvesting in the UW System

Sept. 21, 2016 | 7:00 PM, Madison Memorial High School (201 S. Gammon Road)

What can we do to keep the University of Wisconsin strong in a time of funding cuts and tuition freezes?

Join UW System President Ray Cross, professors, lawmakers, and other education experts for a nonpartisan, interactive community conversation among citizens concerned about the UW's future. This event is free and open to the public!

Featured speakers and panelists:

- Donald Moynihan, director, La Follette School of Public Affairs (opening remarks)
- UW System President Ray Cross
- Rep. Dianne Hesselbein
- Former Sen. Dale Schultz
- Nicholas Hillman, associate professor, UW–Madison
- Mariam Coker, student, UW–Madison
- Gwyn Guenther, Wheeler Report (moderator)

SPONSORED BY:

Team Gold
Kiefer Law Office, LLC

Wisconsin Center for the Advancement of Postsecondary Education (WISCAPE)
La Follette School of Public Affairs
Paula Bonner, WAA President and Chief Alumni Officer