State Senator Dan Knodl Votes to Return Government Surplus to Taxpayers

Madison – Today, State Senator Dan Knodl (R – Germantown) voted in favor of a tax relief package that would return the state’s over $3 billion surplus back to Wisconsinites.

“Thanks to the legislature’s responsible budgeting, our state is currently in a great financial position. With school funding at record levels and local governments receiving the largest increases in state history, a significant tax cut is extremely prudent.

“This is the legislature’s third attempt at providing tax relief. I hope the governor respects the taxpayers enough to give them back their hard-earned dollars to combat the unprecedented inflation brought on by our federal government’s reckless spending spree.”
