Rep. Spreitzer and Sen. Ringhand Cancel In-Person Listening Sessions, Announce Virtual Listening Session

MADISON – Today, Rep. Mark Spreitzer (D-Beloit) and Sen. Janis Ringhand (D-Evansville) announced they are cancelling in-person listening sessions in Beloit and Evansville and will instead host a virtual listening session for all district residents on April 1st.

“As concerns grow around the COVID-19 pandemic, we have decided to take our listening sessions online in order to prevent the spread of the virus,” said Rep. Spreitzer.

“We are committed to continuing our communication with constituents across our districts, but feel that this is the best choice for everyone at this time,” said Sen. Ringhand.

In lieu of physical town hall events, Rep. Spreitzer and Sen. Ringhand will be holding a virtual listening session on April 1st from 5pm to 6pm. Details on joining are below.
