Thanks. Let me know as soon as we have something definite.

Hi Rick –

I don’t know if my dad got back to you, but the hearing is definitely off for tomorrow. It will probably be rescheduled to next week, but the emphasis there is on the “probably.”

-Sarah-

Thanks Sarah. I am hearing from others with whom I am working on other things that might come before the legislature that this hearing is pushed back to next week. Can or your Dad confirm this?

Hi Rick –

Sorry for not getting back to you sooner – I’ve attached what I have received for maps, which I got late Friday. Let me know if this is what you were looking for; if not, I will see if I can track down the correct items.

Thanks!

-Sarah-

Is this still on?
Rick,

I’ve asked for all the information you will need. I will be out the next several days, so Sarah will get that to you.

Redacted: redaction as this relates to another legal matter.

It’s not hard to bless it on the first two with respect to federal review. As you recall I teach Election Law so I am familiar with the cases. I guess I need the maps and any supporting material that you have developed as well - in particular - any analysis of the impact on minority voters. Of course, I need distruct populations. I assume that you desire a written statement as well. Please let me know when you need that. We are moving into interim office space next week and will probably by filing a new case, so it’ll be a bit hectic.

But I’m happy to help. We all know how important this is.
Rick,

We are done with the redistricting maps and they clearly meet the legal criteria of substantially equal population, compact/contiguous and sensitivity to minority interests. We are scheduling a hearing on it for a week from Friday, July 8. Would you be willing to testify that the maps meet those criteria at the hearing? We can get you whatever you need to look at (the maps will be introduced formally on Friday, July 1.) I know this is not in your area of expertise, except that what we are asking is if as a constitutional scholar you could provide that testimony. Let me know your thoughts. I am leaving town at noon on Thursday, but Sarah can get whatever you need. Thanks for your help.

Jim
