Senator Dassler-Alfheim applauds State Supreme Court decision on 1849 abortion ban

MADISON, WI – Today, the Wisconsin State Supreme Court struck down an 1849 abortion ban, ruling that the law in question does not apply to reproductive healthcare.

“This is huge. This isn’t just a win for Democrats, it’s a win for the women of Wisconsin and for the healthcare workers who provide reproductive healthcare to those who need it. Abortion is healthcare. Full stop,” said Senator Dassler-Alfheim (D-Appleton).
