Madison, WI – State Senator Dan Feyen (R-Fond du Lac) was unanimously elected today by his Republican Senate colleagues to serve as Assistant Majority Leader of the State Senate for the 2025-2026 legislative session. He released the following statement on his re-election to this post:

“I am thankful for the continued support of my colleagues. While I may only represent a portion of the state, I am looking forward to working with my fellow Senators to draft policy that will make a positive difference in the lives of each Wisconsinite. Now more than ever, it is important that we stay focused on returning the budget surplus to hardworking Wisconsinites, delivering tax relief for the middle class and seniors, and continue building a stronger economy for all of Wisconsin”

First elected to represent the 18th State Senate District in 2016, Senator Feyen now represents the 20th Senate District, which includes parts of Washington, Fond du Lac, Sheboygan, Ozaukee, and Dodge counties.
