SENATOR HESSELBEIN AND REPRESENTATIVE BARE ANNOUNCE BUDGET LISTENING SESSIONS

MADISON, WI – State Senator Dianne Hesselbein (D-Middleton) and State Representative Mike Bare (D-Verona) announced today that they will be hosting three listening sessions on Saturday, April 5th. These listening sessions will be an opportunity for constituents to share their thoughts about the 2025-2027 biennial state budget introduced by Governor Evers in February.

“I’m excited to hear directly from the people I represent at these listening sessions,” said Senator Hesselbein. “The opinions and concerns of my constituents guide my work here at the capitol, and I am looking forward to this opportunity for feedback.”

“As your Representative, I am committed to being accessible and responsive,” said Representative Bare. “Listening sessions are a key part of that effort. The upcoming sessions will allow us to come together to hear about the specific challenges facing our communities. I encourage all constituents to attend and share their thoughts.”
