State Senate Finally Says NO to Meagan Wolfe

Madison, WI – Senator Cory Tomczyk (R-Mosinee) issued the following statement regarding the confirmation vote on Wisconsin Elections Commission (WEC) Administrator Meagan Wolfe:

“Poll after poll have demonstrated that Wisconsinites have completely lost faith in the administration of our state’s elections. At the helm of this lack of trust is Meagan Wolfe.

“Meagan Wolfe, aided by a select few WEC Commissioners, has shamelessly flaunted her contempt for state law and legislative authority by refusing to appear at the public hearing of the Senate Committee on Share Revenue, Elections, and Consumer Protection. She thinks ignoring the legislature and state law will save her job. Thankfully, the State Senate is doing its job and has finally fired Meagan Wolfe. I happily voted against her reappointment.

“The State Legislature will use its vested powers to do what is necessary to protect the integrity of our elections and try to repair the damage that Meagan Wolfe has wrought.”
