Sen. Pfaff Congratulates Driftless Development Inc. on Business Development Assistance Grant

Madison, WI – Today, Senator Pfaff joined WEDC Secretary Hughes and Prairie du Chien community leaders as WEDC presented Driftless Development Inc. with a Business Development Assistance Grant. This grant will support the construction of a business incubation center and a career and technical education center in Crawford County.

After the announcement, Senator Pfaff said:

“Congratulations to Driftless Development Inc. on receiving this grant, which will stimulate new business ventures in Crawford County, while supporting current businesses. We must continue to make investments in small businesses and educational programs to enhance our economy and prepare the next generation of business leaders in the Driftless Region.”
