Sen. Pfaff: 2023-24 Wisconsin State Legislative Session Begins

Madison, WI – Today, State Senator Brad Pfaff (D-Onalaska) joined his colleagues at the Wisconsin State Capitol as Governor Tony Evers and members of the Wisconsin State Legislature were sworn in to office and began a new legislative session. Following the inauguration ceremonies, Senator Pfaff released the following statement:

“What unites us is greater than what divides us. We must come together to provide for our working families and move Wisconsin forward.”

“I look forward to working hand-in-hand with my colleagues this session to find bipartisan solutions and deliver results for the people of this great state.”
