Statement on Supreme Court Ruling

Madison, WI — State Senator Chris Kapenga (R-Delafield) released the following statement after the Wisconsin State Supreme Court ruled on the Wisconsin Legislature v. Palm case.

“By siding with the legislature, the courts have ruled that Governor Evers and his administration have overstepped the bounds of his authority. Unfortunately, ignoring the law has become a consistent theme of this administration, and I am glad to see the Supreme Court has once again recognized this overreach.

Effective immediately, Wisconsin is back open. It is now up to each individual person to decide how restrictive they feel they need to be, instead of the government mandating it. The legislature will now begin to work through how to properly handle these situations should they arise in the future.”
